

COACHING FOR EMOTIONAL WELL BEING

On Mon, April 10, from 1-4PM, at the Treasury Executive Institute, 801 9th St., NW, in DC.

Marcia Hughes
and James Terrell
from Collaborative Growth

Will Present:

Live for Your Days On... Instead of Your Days Off!

Research is proving what effective people have always known -- the success or failure of human relationships is determined by a small set of well known behaviors and how skillfully they are applied. If your clients need assistance with such issues as stress tolerance, decisiveness, managing change, confronting problem employees, repairing relationships, inspiring followership, or work/life balance, these authors and internationally known developers in the field of emotional intelligence would like to share their expertise.

Living for Your Days On helps coaches deal with the unique issues of their own challenging lives as well as providing effective strategies for helping their clients. Rebuilding trust and a collective commitment to ethical values are critical skills that must be championed if the new global economy is going to succeed. The ability and desire to achieve this lie within all of us. Bring your own insights and passion to what promises to be a lively discussion!

Please request reservations by email from: brendan.jinnohara@bpd.treas.gov

Life's 2% Solution

Presents a field tested process and proven techniques for fully integrating your professional and personal selves. Invest in yourself and find "passionate equilibrium" -- a state of living your life with passion, balance, and happiness.

Emotional Intelligence In Action

Shows how to tap the power of EI through 46 exercises that build the emotional skills and create real change. Use these exercises as part of your leadership and management development program.

